There are hundreds of young men who will go to the polls this fall to cast their vote for the first time in life.
They have perhaps given but little thought to the subject of how they should cast their first vote and many may "vote just like father has been voting" without ever giving the question any further consideration. To such young men we would say: Hold, wait one moment, think for yourself. Start right in this matter.
You will learn that in after years you will be inclined to follow the course you may adopt in your first vote, although it may be without forethought.

Which party has done most for our country?

What is there in the Democratic platform to recommend it to the favor of any young man?

Do you want to join with a party that wants to make strides forward or do you want to join with a party that opposes every measure suggested for the advancement and the development of our country?

The policy of the Republican party has always been to expand and to build up and improve.

The policy of the Democratic party is to oppose, to hinder, to grumble, to criticize, and to find fault with all the undertakings of the Republican party to advance our government and our nation. Now which will you join? Make a wise selection.
Think for yourself and act accordingly.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

Parker—Esopus.
Bryan—Soap-us.
Cleveland—Soup-House.

Take warning friends many of us are not so young but what we can distinctly remember as far back as the Cleveland Soup-house. Be careful how you vote.

The only hard times and panics that this country has witnessed since the Civil war was under the administration of Soup-house Cleveland.

What excuse can any sane man offer for supporting the Democratic ticket? What has that party done for us?

To the rapidly multiplying indications of impending defeat of the Nation Democratic ticket must be added the concession made by the New York "Herald" that "it seems almost a foregone conclusion that Mr. Roosevelt will be elected." That paper, which always assumes an independent attitude in National politics, has been a strenuous and insistent supporter of Mr. Parker ever since the St. Louis convention made the nominations, and while its admission that his prospect of election is well nigh hopeless is only a falling into line with the opinion of all unprejudiced students three weeks in advance of election day, it serves to buttress the prevailing sentiment and strengthen the confidence of Republicans in the result on November 8. With this sturdy friend plainly telling Mr. Parker of what is ahead of him, he and the managers of his campaign must realize that their colors have been falling lower and lower as the contest has progressed.

The popular fear of the Bryanistic influences in the Democracy, the war of faction within the party and the absurdity of the issues put to the front by its leader are the cause assigned by the "Herald" for the trailing of the Parker banner. If it had added as another contributing source of weakness the persistent vilification and falsification of the Democratic speakers and newspapers regarding Mr. Roosevelt and Redub-licans of National prominence, it would have summed up the whole case. The campaign of slander and invective has been a wretched failure.
Mr. Parker was a shrewd enough politician to endeavor to guard his party against making war in this Chinese fashion, but his admonitions were not heeded, and he is at least innocent of provoking his fate except by mistaking "imperialism" for a living question. "Such questions," as the "Herald" says, "are of interest only to debating societies and the question of home rule for the Filipinos has only a theoretical importance." But Mr. Parker thought differently, and he must pay the penalty of his mistake.

It is not to be expected that as the inevitable result of the canvass draws nearer the Democratic orators will change their manner of attack.
They are committed to an intemperate and foolish line of discussion and it is now too late for them to adopt new tactics. Similarly, the time has passed to withdraw Mr.
Brvan from the stump. He has never retracted his declaration that Parker's nomination was secured by crooked and indefensible methods" and his prediction that after that nomination was made "the campaign would begin with a foot race and end in a rout" is very near realization.—Pittsburg Times.
